

It is with great sadness that we learned, a few weeks ago, that Nicous D'André Spring, illegally detained, was murdered by prison guards at the Bordeaux prison. We would like to express our deepest sympathies to his family and friends.

Police officers and detention officers may have different names and functions in theory, but they perform the same role of repression and violence. At this stage, we have to realize that the state continues to build new prisons and invest in ever more lethal police forces.

The year 2022 also saw the opening of the new migrant prison in Laval. The state and its cops are locking up adults and children because they had the misfortune to be born on the wrong side of an imaginary line. How long will we tolerate this violence against our brethren?

On March 15th, it will be time to tell all the police in our streets and the prison screws that their violence will no longer stand!

It is with great sadness that we learned, a few weeks ago, that Nicous D'André Spring, illegally detained, was murdered by prison guards at the Bordeaux prison. We would like to express our deepest sympathies to his family and friends.

Police officers and detention officers may have different names and functions in theory, but they perform the same role of repression and violence. At this stage, we have to realize that the state continues to build new prisons and invest in ever more lethal police forces.

The year 2022 also saw the opening of the new migrant prison in Laval. The state and its cops are locking up adults and children because they had the misfortune to be born on the wrong side of an imaginary line. How long will we tolerate this violence against our brethren?

On March 15th, it will be time to tell all the police in our streets and the prison screws that their violence will no longer stand!

It is with great sadness that we learned, a few weeks ago, that Nicous D'André Spring, illegally detained, was murdered by prison guards at the Bordeaux prison. We would like to express our deepest sympathies to his family and friends.

Police officers and detention officers may have different names and functions in theory, but they perform the same role of repression and violence. At this stage, we have to realize that the state continues to build new prisons and invest in ever more lethal police forces.

The year 2022 also saw the opening of the new migrant prison in Laval. The state and its cops are locking up adults and children because they had the misfortune to be born on the wrong side of an imaginary line. How long will we tolerate this violence against our brethren?

On March 15th, it will be time to tell all the police in our streets and the prison screws that their violence will no longer stand!

It is with great sadness that we learned, a few weeks ago, that Nicous D'André Spring, illegally detained, was murdered by prison guards at the Bordeaux prison. We would like to express our deepest sympathies to his family and friends.

Police officers and detention officers may have different names and functions in theory, but they perform the same role of repression and violence. At this stage, we have to realize that the state continues to build new prisons and invest in ever more lethal police forces.

The year 2022 also saw the opening of the new migrant prison in Laval. The state and its cops are locking up adults and children because they had the misfortune to be born on the wrong side of an imaginary line. How long will we tolerate this violence against our brethren?

On March 15th, it will be time to tell all the police in our streets and the prison screws that their violence will no longer stand!